

A/PROF LUKE
BURCHILL

27 OCT 2021
10 AM - 1 PM

Research Translator in
The ALIVE National Centre for Mental Health Research
Translation

3-HOUR
VIRTUAL
WORKSHOP

NEXT GEN RESEARCHER NETWORK PRESENTS

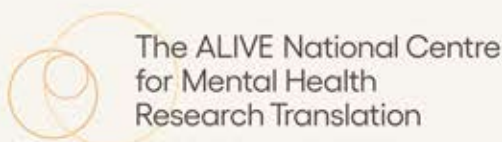

An ALIVE National Centre capacity building workshop in adaptive governance and its principles including the Culturally Adaptive Governance Framework (CAGF) as a new approach to centre Indigenous governance in research collaborations.

This three-hour virtual workshop will cover the following:

- Building the Space – How We Will Work Together Today
- What is Adaptive Governance?
- From Adaptive Governance to Culturally Adaptive Governance: Theory & Practice
- Our Governance, Our Values, Our Voices
- Simple tips for supporting feedback, learning and decision making across the ALIVE Network

REGISTER HERE:

<https://www.eventbrite.com.au/e/a-capacity-building-workshop-in-adaptive-governance-tickets-183169192987>

The ALIVE National Centre
for Mental Health
Research Translation

The ALIVE National Centre for Mental Health Research Translation
Administered by University of Melbourne
E: info@alivenetwork.com.au
W: alivenetwork.com.au

We acknowledge the Traditional Owners of the land on which we work, and pay our respects to the Elders, past and present.
The ALIVE National Centre for Mental Health Research Translation is funded by the National Health and Medical Research Council (NHMRC) Special Initiative in Mental Health grant APP2002047